Electricity in its various applicatins as a motive power, Explosives, etc., will be the subjects of another group of illustration districts another group of illustration friend, Moscheles, at a peculiarly intresting time of his career, will furnish the substance of several articles of great interest to musical readers, which will be flustrated with portraits and drawings from Mendelssohn's own hand.

The Fletion will be strong, not only in the work of well-known writers, but in that of new authors, in securing whose co-operation the Magazine has been so fortunate during its first year of publication. A serial novel, entitled "First Harvests," by Frederic J. Stimson, will be begun in the January number, and early in the year novelettes will be published by Henry James and H. C. Bunner.—The short stories are of noticeable strength and freshness.

ILLUSTRATIONS.—The Magazine will show increased excellence in its illustrations. T
